

Group class spotlight:

UKES & ME

Learn A New Skill Together

Children learn most effectively from and alongside the people they love the most: their caregivers!

Ukes & Me is a group class that allows families to make the most of this sensitive stage of learning by engaging child and adult as a pair.

Grownups will be instructed in basic ukulele technique while children are engaged in the learning process through proven Suzuki-inspired methods.

Each session of Ukes & Me runs weekly for three months, giving families the time to grow together musically, bonding through a meaningful, shared learning experience.

What do I need to know?
